Buckman & Mudd have received a fancy horse from St Louis.

C A Jones has sold 18 head of calves to A Y Crawford for $300.

Friday, W B Arnold delivered 89 head of hogs to Hunnewell buyers at 45c. The hogs had been bought some two weeks before for future delivery and the buyers went into the nine-hold nicely.

Tom Cannon, of Huntington, thinks there is gold at the end of the rainbow, so has sold his farm and will move to Bee Bee Ark, in a few days and in time he will learn that the Bee Bee has stung him on the finger. S O Goode, of Kansas City, bought the farm and will move his family onto it as soon as the big and little Cannons leave, and he and his wife will be prosperous and happy. We welcome, cordially welcome Mr. Goode and family to this section of the state.

Press Hancock and children are preparing to move from near Huntington to Doniphan county. We only hope that they will not regret the change.

The hill country surrounding Hannibal is an ideal fruit country. Saturday the fruit raisers reported: Prospects for a big fruit yield were never better at this season of the year.

Mr Farmer do you realize the vast change that has taken place all around you in the past 20 or 25 years? At that time about one-third of the farmers were renters and moved from farm to farm March 1st. Now it is all different because the farmers in this vicinity became prosperous and now own their own farms and the renter is fast becoming an unknown quantity unless he is on lands of non-residents.

Thoroughbred Plymouth Rock cockrels and Mammoth Bronze turkeys for sale. Must be gotten soon.—Mrs. James Smith, F & M Phone 135 or the farm.

W R Yates for William Waldron has sold the west 60 off of his 160 to Tony Meyers. Consideration $43 per acre.

ABOUT THE CHURCHES.

Interesting News Concerning the Different Denominations.

This Column Closes Promptly at 9 a. m. Each Wednesday. Don't Forget it.

Rev C. W. Collett, of Fulton, filled Rev. Russell's place at the Methodist church here Sunday. Rev. Collett is an old timer, 77 years old, but he preached two good sermons. He preached in this section of the State many years ago.—Farber Forum.

Rev. Fr. D. F. Sullivan, of Hannibal, paid the DEMOCRAT an appreciated visit Tuesday. When Priest of the Holy Rosary parish of this city he was both popular and beloved. His transfer to the church of Immaculate Conception at Hannibal, was a well deserved promotion.

Rev. Charles King pastor of the Bethlehem Baptist church resigned the pastorate. The church recalled him and he again accepted the charge.

Rev. Fr. James Noble went to Louisiana to look after the spiritual welfare of his old parishioners until today.

Rev. Fr. Martin Collins, of Shelbyville, was with his friends, Rev. Frs. T Mullen and J. Cunningham, Saturday.

Dr. Read was with Hannibal friends Monday.

Rev. Edwards has been spending several days in the city in the interest of the Christian college at Fulton. Sunday morning he delivered a strong sermon at the Christian church.

Washington, Feb. 22.—Right Rev. Henry Yates Satterlee, for the past twelve years Protestant Episcopal bishop of Washington, died of pneumonia today, aged 65. Mr. Satterlee was formerly rector of Calvary church of New York. He was a religious writer of note and had been elected but declined to accept the bishopric of Michigan and the bishop coadjutorship of Ohio.

A friend has given us a circular letter signed by Fred J. Kern, Mayor of Belleville, Ill., and another by Silas Cook, Mayor of East St. Louis, Ill., pertaining to a preacher by name of King, the man, who, if newspaper reports be true, has caused Clarence considerable trouble during the past few weeks by his tirades leveled against Catholics and "Campbellites." Mayor Cook had the police force to drive King from the streets. He and Mayor Kern speak in the highest of terms of Catholics and their christian integrity and charitable usefulness.

Lumberg-Beilspein.

One of the prettiest home weddings of the month was that of Miss Susie M., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gus Lundberg at the home of the brides father at 6:30 Tuesday evening, Rev M. F. Crow officiating.

His father, mother, and some special friends attended the delightful event.

A three course supper was served to the guests.

Miss Lundberg was one of Monroe counties best and sweetest young ladies. Mr. Beilspein is one of Adams County Ill., most prosperous farmers.

May the sun of happiness shine on them through life.

Mrs W. J. Morrow of St. Louis has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tulley. She was accompanied home by her sister, Mrs. John Vance and Walter R. Beilspein of Payson, Ill.

It pays to trade at J. E. Christian's.

CITY PRIMARY.

Democrats of Monroe City Will Nominate Their City Ticket, Tuesday, March 17.

The City Democratic central committee met at the DEMOCRAT office Tuesday afternoon. Present: J. W. Johnston and W. J. Rouse from the 1st ward; J. G. Wade from the 2nd ward; Dr. W. T. Rutledge and D. R. Campbell from the 3rd ward.

J. W. Johnston was elected chairman and W. J. Rouse secy.

On motion it was decided that the Democratic candidates for the various city offices be nominated at a primary election to be held at the council room from 1 p. m. to 6 p. m., Tuesday, March 17, 1908.

The ballots of the votes of the various wards to be deposited in separate ballot boxes—boxes being provided for each ward, in order that voters may also vote for one alderman and two central committee men from each ward.

All Democrats eligible to vote at the city election, who supported the Democratic ticket at the last general election, will be entitled to a vote in this primary.

Judges were appointed as follows: 1st ward, I. A. Borden and J. J. Brown.

2nd ward, D. M. Proctor and Joe Hays.

3rd ward, G. W. Tooley and T. B. Hayden.

Assessments were made against offices as follows:

Mayor.....$2.00
Marshal.....2.00
Collector.....2.00
Police Judge.....1.00
Alderman 1st ward.....1.00
" 2nd ".....1.00
" 3rd ".....1.00

In order that their names may be on the ticket all candidates must deposit their assessment with the committee secretary, W. J. Rouse, by or before 12 o'clock, noon Thursday, March 12, 1908.

New Firm

The Spalding real estate Co. have sold the Culbertson Drug Company's stock to W. C. Irwin and H. D. Evans of Salem, Ill. The gentlemen will first stock up and then give you an invitation to call and see them.

They are congenial gentlemen who will soon make a name for themselves in business and social circles.

To School District Clerks.

Supplies were sent to each district clerk last week, any clerk failing to receive such supplies please phone or write me. I have also a copy of 1907 School Law for each clerk and president of school board. If you have no late Law I shall be glad to send you a copy at once.
